TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world."

This line, the ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY.

has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis of the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management, from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S. HARRIS, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 242, Chattanooga, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

The Path of Glory.

Opportunities for personal heroism and sacrifice are never wanting. Quintus Curtius was not the only Roman by many to whom fame proffered immortality. The trouble is that men do not seize the fortune and bind the martyr's deathless crown on their brows.

The city of New York now offers an unexampled opportunity to her officials to forever live in the affections of their fellow-citizens. On the 26th, on the occasion of the death of Police Commissioner Smith, Broadway was swept and put in splendid condition the night before, throughout the whole extent the funeral procession would pass. A self-sacrifice by an official, and his funeral through the streets each day, would secure thoroughfares in the best order. If the metropolis would set the example in this respect, perhaps the custom would extend to other cities, until even towns the size of Wilmington could get clean streets at comparatively small cost.

Boston's Collector.

The long agony in Boston is over. The shock which the aristocratic quarters of State and Beacon streets felt at the nomination of Mr. Simmons for the Collectorship of that port, has subsided into the calmness of despair. The idea that a man, who was poor and not of the elect, should hold one of the most important offices in the city was overwhelming. But pluck and Butler carried the day—as they generally do.

The day before Mr. Simmons was confirmed, the New York Sun predicted that the appointment would be rejected by the Senate. But, like all the opinions of Dana, this was erroneous. In fact, Mr. Simmons' friends seemed few, although they made zeal supply numbers. Most of the newspapers opposed his appointment, on one ground or another, but all the charges against him are rather vague.

The Detroit Free Press lately published a dispatch from Washington that Senator Chandler was guilty of intoxication and other disgraceful conduct while in the Senate Chamber. Mr. Chandler has commenced an action against the paper, laying his damages at $100,000.

If the charges are true then the newspaper is right in publishing them, but if false it should be made to smart for its falsehood. Press license is a different thing from press liberty, and ignorant editors should be taught the distinction.

Our old friend, James Case, says the Bath County (Ky.) News, tells the following strange owl story: "It seems that Mr. James Warner, residing near Mr. C's has been doing a considerable amount of trapping for the last few months. While setting his traps some time ago, he concluded that he would bait for a large bird, which he believed had been bothering his chicken-roost of late days. He accordingly did so, and upon the morning after, upon going to visit his traps, was much surprised at finding one of them gone—baited trap both gone, and no owl; but the sequel is to come. The other morning, Mrs. Rodgers, who lives ten miles away from Mr. Warner's hearing some disturbance in the hen-house among the chickens, arose quickly, and taking a light, went out to see what was the matter with them, thinking it was probably a fox. By making a careful and sudden effort, she succeeded in catching the object, and, to her great surprise, found it was a huge owl. But the strange part is to come. Attached to the owl was Mr. Warner's trap and about ten inches of chain. It seems that two teeth were firmly held the leg of the bird, cutting all around quite to the bone, but without injuring the latter. The leg, however, by this time was recovered and well, the wound having had ample time to cure during the two months that had passed since the owl flew away with the trap. What wonderful tenacity of life was exhibited by the bird! What tortures must have torn the poor owl as he passed along his way dragging the terrible trap and chain."

Science too much for a Sharper. A Jamesville, Wis., father named Finch has been trying to utilize an orifice that used to yield him water. So he bored into the lime rock and "struck it." But when the chemist found it was refined kerosene the interest died out. Next that ignorant Finch did, no found coal. The local geologists vowed Wisconsin was altogether below the coal measures. Chicago men went thither with drills, however. They found the coal very much like what was sold in the yards at Jamesville, and it came out in singularly regular fragments, like the grade called nut coal. And Finch curses geology, high and low.

It is said a new Republican paper will soon be published at Goldsboro.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

A colossal bronze statue of John Bunyan has been cast. The statue is a gift of the Duke of Bedford to the town of Bedford.

American tourists are said to be displaying their obliging dispositions by the easy and accommodating manner in which they relieve travelers of their surplus change by the simple game of poker.

White muslin trousers are very much worn by ladies in Spain. They are trimmed with frills, and ladies here, who wish to put on frills have a worthy example to set them by those who have to walk Spanish.

Lectures on cookery are becoming popular in some of the large towns of England. The latest course we have heard of has been begun at Leeds, under the auspices of the Ladies' Council of the Yorkshire Board of Education.

Caleb Cushing has been ill, suffering from a severe cold, and is compelled to decline the dinner tendered to him by prominent citizens of his native town. He will sail for Spain between the 1st and 7th of March.

Marriage, says the Railroad Gazette would not seem to have any close connection with railroad traffic, but we find an officer of the East Indian railroad company explaining a falling off in the passenger receipts of the year by the fact that it was a "twelfth year," which is regarded by the Hindoos as so unfavorable to marriage that no one, or scarcely any one, is married. And as weddings are the great occasions in Hindoo life when there is great pomp and a general gathering together of friends they cause a great deal of traveling.

Dr. Schmidt, Professor of Astronomy in the University of Athens, has just completed his great map of the moon. It is two metres in diameter, and is a marvel of accurate mapping and minute daughtmanship. The shading is so exquisite that any part of the map may be examined by a lens with the appearance of course or rough work. The map represents the labor of thirty four years, and is without doubt one of the greatest astronomical results of the century.

The number of officers of foreign birth holding commissions in the army of the United States, is 244, of whom 46 are in the staff departments, 54 in the cavalry, 23 in the artillery and 121 in the infantry. This does not include one born in Asia, one East India, and three who were born when their mothers happened to be at sea. The countries having the honor to supply so many officers for our army are: Ireland, 96; Germany, 45; England, 35; Sweden, 22; Scotland, 15; France, 8; Switzerland, 3; South America, 3; Nova Scotia, 2; Italy, 2; Poland, 2; Prince Edward Island, 1; Austria, 1; Malta, 1; Corfu, 1; Madeira, 1; Norway, 1; and the Netherlands, 1.

On Saturday morning in New York Judge Pratt granted a warrant for the arrest of Buenaventura Baez, ex-President of Santo Domingo, on the application of Davis Hatch, a wealthy resident of Connecticut, in an action for damages. He charges Baez with conspiring against his liberty, wealth, and life, while was a resident of Santo Domingo. It seems that Hatch acquired possession of an immense salt mine there from the Spanish authorities; was arrested and charged with being in sympathy with the Cabral faction; was sent to prison, kept there five months, and brought before a drum head court martial, summarily tried, and sentenced to death. He was then pardoned by Baez and his mine was confiscated. Hatch's complaint recites a story of frightful corruption, fraud and villainy, and the trial will bring forward eminent men of the government. Bail was fixed at $25,000.

The trial of the Tichborne claimant on charges of perjury committed during the trial for the possession of the estate, which has been in progress upward of 180 days, was brought to a close Saturday morning, and resulted in the conviction of the accused. The jury, after being out a short time, brought in a verdict of guilty of the charges, and the claimant was sentenced to fourteen years penal servitude. There is great excitement over the verdict, and extras announcing it have been issued by the papers. After the verdict was announced the claimant expressed a desire to address the court but the Chief Justice refused permission. He maintained his usual composure when the sentence was pronounced. He shook hands with Dr. Kenaly, his counsel, and was taken from the court room by a seldom-used exit, placed in a private carriage, and rapidly driven to Newgate, much to the disappointment of an immense, though orderly, crowd which gathered outside to see him pass.

MORE BURGLARIZING.—Tuesday night last the bed room of Mr. Charles Schulken, over his store on Water street, was entered and robbed of several articles of clothing. The thief effected an entrance by getting through a window into an empty room adjoining Mr. Schulken's, and breaking a hole through the wall. Robert Hill, who was implicated in the theft of an overcoat the same night, was seen with the articles trying to dispose of them. He will be tried for the theft of Mr. Schulken's clothing to-morrow morning.

GRADUATES.—At the annual commencement of the Bellevue Hospital Medical College, held in New York, Feb'y 26th, the Degree of Doctor in Medicine was conferred upon 162 graduates. Among those from North Carolina we observe the names of James E. Brothers, James H. Durham, Augustus H. Golet, W. T. Kennedy, Augustus W. Knox, W. H. Steele, and F. I. Thorp. The many friends of Doctor "Gus" Golet, in this section of our State, wish him Godspeed in any field of labor where his professional services may be called into requisition.

THE night clothes of little Archie, the youngest son of the Senior, accidentally caught fire this morning while the child was standing on the hearth. His screams aroused his father, and Betts, a servant devoted to the child, acting with great presence of mind, threw him down, and attempted to smother the fire with his hands, but without success. Other members of the family came to the Major's assistance, and the flames were finally extinguished without any very serious burns being inflicted, although the little fellow shows the marks of fire from his foot to his knee.

LAST Tuesday night an overcoat was stolen from the room of young a gentleman of this city. Yesterday he was walking on Market street and spied the coat on a young colored man. He stopped him to ask some questions in order to satisfy himself in regard to its being his coat. He informed the negro that the coat was his property, when the negro tried to run, but as the young gentleman had collared him he concluded to stop. The man gave his name as Frank Johnston, and implicated Sam Brown and Robt. Hill in the theft. The trio were tried before the Mayor this morning, and sentenced to thirty days work each on the streets.

THE trial of Elijah Martin, for an attempt to commit a rape upon the person of a little girl, ten years of age, was held this morning by his Honor the Mayor. The evidence is unfit for publication, but the fact of the attempt, violent and positive, is proven beyond a doubt, as is also the identification. Elijah was charged by his brother David Martin, as being one of the murderers of Willie Carter, but the Grand Jury failed to find a bill against him. He will have to stand another trial in Court now, this time for the penalty.

STATE ITEMS.

Raw oysters and cold gingerbread as a lunch, is coming in vogue in Newbern.

The Directors of the North Carolina Railroad held a meeting at Company Shops on Thursday.

Mrs. Cooper, wife of the Sheriff of Richmond county, died on the 20th inst., aged 36 years.

A merchant of Enfield catches rats and mice by spreading molasses on the floor, and the victims get stuck by the fluid.

The gin on the place of Mr. J. R. Odum, of Wilson county, was burned last week. Loss about $800. No insurance.

Jacob Hathaway stabbed Benjamin Arlin on the 21st ult., at Gatesville, which resulted in the death of the latter. No steps have been taken to arrest Hathaway.

It seems that young Elliott, of Statesville, who lately killed Mr. Neal, was not bailed by Judge Mitchell, as the hearing on habeas corpus disclosed a non-bailable offense.

Diamonds and Destitution.

Mrs. Astor, the wife of the hundred-millionaire, of New York, appeared at a party which she gave at her Fifth avenue residence, one evening last week, in a style which would justify any reporter in saying that she "literally blazed with diamonds." On each of her shoulders she had four stars, the size of silver half-dollars, made of diamonds. Her hair was set very thickly with diamonds, and her head seemed aflame with them. There was a diamond bandeau upon her brow. She had diamond ear-rings, and a diamond necklace of magnificent proportions. Upon the two sides of her chest were two circles of diamonds, about the size of the palm of the hand. From them depended lines and curves of diamonds reaching to her waist, round which she wore a diamond girdle. On the skirts of her dress in front were two large peacocks, wrought of lines of diamonds. There were roses of diamonds on her slippers. There were diamonds, large or small, in variety of form, all over her dress and person, wherever they could be artistically placed. She presented an extraordinary and dazzling spectacle as she moved languidly through the dance among her friends. One of the ladies present, a connoisseur in precious stones, who kept cool enough to take practical observations, says the diamonds she wore could not have cost less than a million dollars, and must have represented her husband's income for at least a quarter of a year. This same lady, who is familiar with court life in Europe, says the largest collection of diamonds in possession of any European empress or queen belong to the present German Empress, but she adds that even Augusta herself could not make a diamond show which would begin to compare with that made by Mrs. Astor on Thursday evening of last week. In these hard times the Astors are occasionally liberal in their benefactions. For instance, there was a banquet for twenty-four given at the Astor mansion the other day, and at each lady's place there was a gift for her of a costly bonbonniere, exquisitely wrought with precious stones, and about the size of an ordinary snuff-box; and each lady was also presented with a bouquet, gotten up in fashion not to be described. The New York Times has for some months past been trying to make a fuss over the fact that Astor manages to evade the payment of a large proportion of the taxes on his vast property by a method which is known as the "vacation of assessments." According to the Times this system is regularly practiced by the richest men of New York. On the evening in which the diamond display here was made in the Fifth Avenue mansion, the starving masses in the wretched quarters of the city were swarming around some two or three hundred soup-houses and charity places, while between eight and nine thousand homeless men and women were huddled for the night in station houses, or still more miserable free resorts, and not a few tried to keep warm by crawling into ash-barrels or sinking into area-ways. The money of the Astors is their own, and the sufferings of these miserable wretches are their own. —Cincinnati Commercial.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 2.

It seems to be conceded that all the Democrats, except Thurman and Bayard—certain preliminary motions failing—will support Carpenter's Louisiana election bill, which it is stated will be altered to hold an election in November instead. Major Carpenter is quoted as saying "that the Republican party can only avoid defeat by unleashing Louisiana." The change of date will be made to conciliate industrial interests. A pressure is brought to bear upon Senator West to hold off the army appropriation bill for the Louisiana case, so that the people may know what to expect. The army bill will occupy fully ten days.

Hull Slater, convicted of the murder of Hussey, has been released on $15,000 bail by Judge McArthur. The killing occurred at the Scheutzenfest here one year ago. Slater was well known in Mobile and New Orleans, and was once proprietor of the City Hotel.

In the House the usual number of bills were introduced and referred.

In the Senate, Mr. West introduced a bill to provide for the settlement of claims of loyal persons, growing out of the late rebellion, which was referred to the Committee on Claims.

OHIO.

CLEVELAND, March 2.

The Convention of Locomotive Engineers adjourned sine die on Saturday evening. It is authoritative stated that a demand will be made upon all railroad companies that have made a reduction in the wages of their engineers to restore them to their former figures, and if this is not complied with a strike will be ordered. It was also determined that in case of the necessity arising for a strike on any of the through lines, it shall become general.

A very prominent Eastern railway official telegraphed on Saturday to a leading railway manager of Cleveland that John Faherbach, President of the Machinists and Blacksmiths' National Union has, for some weeks been trying to organize a strike of the mechanics and other day laborers. The telegram says: "He represents that men on your and other Western roads and upon the Pennsylvania and Erie lines are ready for the signal," and asks, "would not the law term him a conspirator?"

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, March 2.

An American bark, from Matanzas hither, reports being boarded off Havana by the Spanish soldiery and searched.

Caleb Cushing is here.

The body found floating in the water at Jersey City, on Saturday, has been identified as that of Thos. C. Chisholm, formerly an extensive grain dealer in Chicago, where he sustained great losses in the latter part of 1873. He has been missing since December. Money, a watch and jewelry were found on the remains of the supposed suicide.

A dispatch dated near Dry Tortugas, fleet rendezvous, via Key West, March 1st, says the United States steam vessel Fortune, which has just arrived from Havana, reports there is considerable anxiety in that city regarding the startling rumor of the escape of the Edgar Stuart, from American waters.

EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sun day, at Five Dollars per Annum.

The Post is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the

LATEST NEWS,

up to the time of going to press,

TELEGRAPHIC

BY MAIL,

COMMERCIAL

AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give

RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE,

its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational,

and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend

the sensibilities of the most fastidious.

As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man

in the city.

Politically the Post is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicissitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however, an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES OF

the Post, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it despises a share of public patronage,

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,

AGRICULTURAL,

MECHANICAL, or

COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE Post.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

Prospectus for 1874—Seventh year

THE ALDINE

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other periodicals may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art circles of Europe and America are held in high esteem. The common prejudice in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the best costly steel engravings, while they afford a more rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent reproductions of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic results. The ALDINE will also contain the subscribers to THE ALDINE will at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasing and refreshing sight of the reproductions of the great masters of art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thos. Moran and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars, and is now in the possession of the United States.

"The East" and "The West." One is a view in the White Mountains New Hampshire the other a view of the Grand Canyon, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves in a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12 x 16) and appearance exact facsimiles of the originals.

The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over
